

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	7
Introduction	10
Chapter 1. The Aglona Region
Location: Historic Region of Ancient Hill-Forts	13
The Aglona Region	14
The Origin of the Name	14
Chapter 2. The Historical Background
The Early History of the Region	17
The Origin of Christianity in Latgale	18
The Later Medieval Period	18
Chapter 3. The Original Church and Monastery
The Founding of the Church and Monastery	21
The Original Church	22
The Apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary	23
The Monastery	24
The Icon of Our Lady of Aglona	24
The Legends	30
Miracles	31
The Early Years of the “White Fathers”	32
Chapter 4. The New Church and Monastery
The Construction of the New Church and Monastery	35
The Theological Seminary	37
The Monastery Land	37
The Aglona Spring	39

The Church Crypt and Cellars	41
Cemeteries	41
The Dominican Monastery Library	42
Chapter 5. Aglona in the Nineteenth Century
The Renovations	46
Tsarist Russia's Restrictive Policies	47
Chapter 6. Pilgrimages
Dominican Liturgies	50
Aglona's Popularity as a Pilgrimage Site	50
A Pilgrimage in 1900	51
Pilgrimages in the 1920s and 1930s	55
Aglona's Role	60
Chapter 7. Aglona 1900 to 1918
The Latgalian Awakening	65
World War I	66
Aglona Under Threat of Bolshevik Terror: 1917 to 1919	67
Chapter 8. Aglona in Independent Latvia 1918 to 1940
Seat of the New Diocese	71
The Consecration of Bishop Springovičs	71
The Work of Nikodems Rancāns and Aloizijs Broks	74
The Sisters of the Poor Child Jesus and the Jaunaglona School	77
The Aglona Parish	79
Aglona's Role as a Latvian Catholic Cultural Center	79
Chapter 9. The First Soviet Occupation 1940–41
Communist Actions in Aglona	84
NKVD Terror Against the Students	86
The Priests in Danger	86
Chapter 10. World War II: German Occupation
German Rule in Latgale	90
Nazi Atrocities in the Aglona Area	91
The Arrest and Deportation of Aloizijs Broks	91
The Evacuation of the Icon	95

The Aglona Shrine in Danger	96
Chapter 11. Soviet Communist Rule – The Postwar Years 1944 to 1957
The Return of Communist Rule	100
Communist Hostility Toward Aglona	101
Chapter 12. Atheistic Excesses 1957 to 1970
The Intensified Atheist Attack on Aglona	105
The Expulsion of the Nuns	107
The Destruction of the Historic Library and Archive	109
The Devastation of the Historic Aglona Church Property	110
Anti-Aglona Propaganda	114
The Monastery and Aglona Shrine Under Duress	115
The Aglona Parish and its Pastors in the Soviet Period	116
Chapter 13. The Later Soviet Communist Period 1970 to 1985
Pilgrims During the Communist Occupation	124
Aglona’s 200 th Anniversary and Designation as Basilica	126
Chapter 14. The Last Years of Communism 1985 to 1991
Soviet Reform: Glasnost, Perestroika and the Waning of Atheism 1985 to 1991	128
Remarkable Changes in 1989 and 1990	129
Aglona’s Resurgence	130
Chapter 15. Independent Latvia: Aglona’s Renovation and Renewal
The Ecological Issue: Reversing Soviet Environmental Damage	132
Restoration and Reconstruction	133
The Visit of Pope John Paul II	134
Status as National Religious Site	139
Afterword: Aglona’s Historical Role	141
Leonhards Latkovskis	144