

CONTENTS

I Articles on significant trends of contemporary musical culture

Ilze Šarkovska-Liepiņa Latvian choral music: traditions, personalities, the latest trends	8
Jānis Kudiņš Latvian symphonic music at the turn of the 20th and 21st centuries: Neoromantic trend and reasons for it to be topical	14
Rolands Kronlaks Several aspects of sound in the music of Latvian composers, born in the 70s	25
Audra Versekēnaitė The tendencies of intertextuality: Lithuanian music of the last decade of the 20th century	29
Mikko Nisula Trends in Finnish music within 1975–2008	45

II Analytical studies on music creations of contemporary composers

Elina Selga A few manner aspects in Lotta Wennäkoski orchestral work Sakara	53
Rasa Vilimaitė The poetry of orchestra and transformational curves in Lotta Wennäkoski's Sakara	58
Jūlija Jonāne Talking by Marius Baranauskas	65
Jolita Ivanova Philharmonia by Anatoly Korolyov: from the perspective of form, vertical and horizontal layer	71
Jānis Petraškevičs Anatoly Korolyov's orchestral piece Philharmonia: some aspects of formal shaping and compositions technique	78
Laura Kaščiukaitė Kalevi Aho's Symphony No. 2: the development of a neo-classicist prototype	81
Santa Bušs The role of bands and connections in the music composition Fascia by Kent Olofsson	94

Mikko Nisula

Juris Karlsons: Vakarbļāzma (Sunset Glow)

98

Justė Janulytė

Inspiration, interpretation and deformation of the pre-existing poetic texts in Faces and moon splinters by Malin Bang and Saline by Santa Ratniece

100